

Christmas

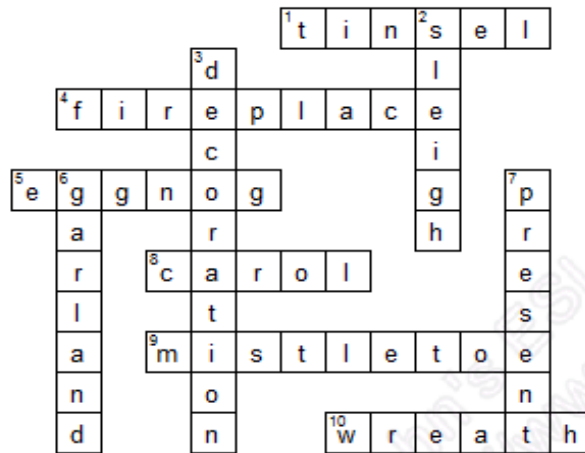

Across

1. Thin strips of shiny material that looks like shiny metal or foil.
4. The part of a chimney that opens into a room and in which a fire is built.
5. A drink made of eggs, milk or cream, sugar, and usually, liquor.
8. Christmas song or hymn.
9. An evergreen plant having white berries that grows as a parasite on various trees, used as decoration at Christmas.
10. A circular band of flowers or leaves twisted together for decoration.

Down

2. A light, usually open vehicle on runners, used for traveling over ice and snow.
3. An adornment or ornament that is used to beautify.
6. A wreath or chain, made to be worn for celebration or decoration.
7. something given as a gift

Christmas

Across

- Thin strips of shiny material that looks like shiny metal or foil. [tinsel]
- The part of a chimney that opens into a room and in which a fire is built. [fireplace]
- A drink made of eggs, milk or cream, sugar, and usually, liquor. [eggnog]
- Christmas song or hymn. [carol]
- An evergreen plant having white berries that grows as a parasite on various trees, used as decoration at Christmas. [mistletoe]
- A circular band of flowers or leaves twisted together for decoration. [wreath]

Down

- A light, usually open vehicle on runners, used for traveling over ice and snow. [sleigh]
- An adornment or ornament that is used to beautify. [decoration]
- A wreath or chain, made to be worn for celebration or decoration. [garland]
- something given as a gift [present]