

Easter

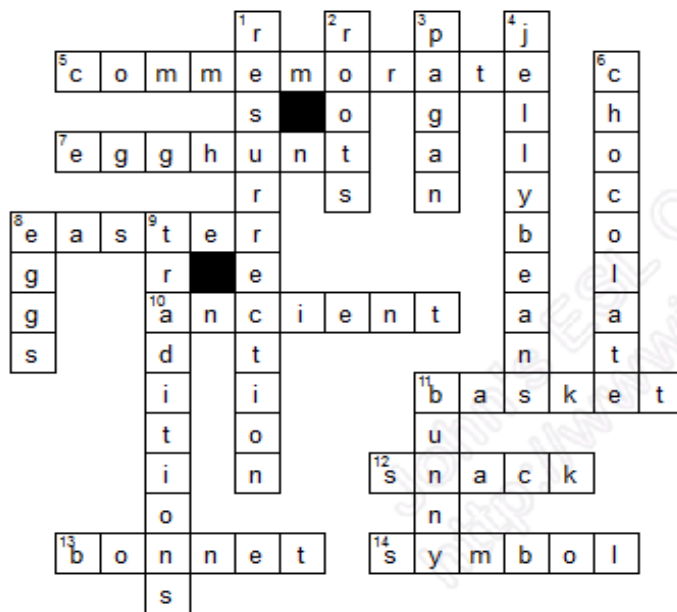

Across

5. To honor the memory of
7. A common Easter day activity.
8. A religious holiday that is celebrated in April.
10. Of or in the long past, esp. before the end of the Western Roman Empire.
11. A container made of straw or strips of wood that have been woven together.
12. Food that is eaten between regular meals.
13. A head covering is tied under the chin, worn chiefly by children.
14. Something that represents something else.

Down

1. The act of rising from the dead.
2. source or origin
3. An irreligious person.
4. A type of candy with a gelatinous filling.
6. A type of candy is made from this.
8. The roundish objects produced by female birds and other animals, used as food.
9. Beliefs, legends, or customs that are handed down from one generation to the next.
11. A young rabbit.

Easter

Across

- To honor the memory of [commemorate]
- A common Easter day activity. [egghunt]
- A religious holiday that is celebrated in April. [easter]
- Of or in the long past, esp. before the end of the Western Roman Empire. [ancient]
- A container made of straw or strips of wood that have been woven together. [basket]
- Food that is eaten between regular meals. [snack]
- A head covering is tied under the chin, worn chiefly by children. [bonnet]
- Something that represents something else. [symbol]

Down

- The act of rising from the dead. [resurrection]
- source or origin [roots]
- An irreligious person. [pagan]
- A type of candy with a gelatinous filling. [jellybeans]
- A type of candy is made from this. [chocolate]
- The roundish objects produced by female birds and other animals, used as food. [eggs]
- Beliefs, legends, or customs that are handed down from one generation to the next. [traditions]
- A young rabbit. [bunny]