

Shopping for a New Camera

Salesclerk: Good afternoon. Can I help you find something?

Customer: Yes, I'm looking for a new digital camera.

Salesclerk: Ok, I think I can help you. What kind of camera would you like?

Customer: I'd like one that is light and easy to use.

Salesclerk: Here is our best model. It's light, easy to use and takes excellent pictures.

Customer: It's a little expensive. Do you have anything that is a little less expensive?

Salesclerk: Sure. We have the new Koolpic 2000. It has many features and it's not very expensive.

Customer: Where is it made?

Salesclerk: It's made in Japan and it has a one year warranty.

Customer: It looks great. I'll take it.

Salesclerk: The camera comes with a free camera bag.

Customer: That's great!

Salesclerk: That'll be $150 please.

Customer: Here you are. Thanks for your help.

Salesclerk: You're welcome.

Vocabulary and Key Expressions

I'm looking for: I would like to buy or I want to buy best model: the best one of its kind a little less expensive: cheaper many features: many added functions, such as zoom lens, will make movies, and play MP3

warranty: manufacture's promise that the item will work or you can return it and get your money back