

Jobs and Their Descriptions

- accountant : a person who maintains financial records.
- actor : a person who acts in a play or movie.
- architect : a person who designs buildings.
- author : a person who writes books, plays, and other literary works.
- baker : a person who bakes bread, cakes, etc.
- bartender : a person who makes and serves alcoholic beverages either at a pub, night club, or bar.
- butcher : a person who prepares meat to be sold to customers.
- caretaker : a person who takes care of graveyards.
- cashier : a person who collects payment for merchandise.
- chef : a person who prepares food; distinguished from a cook by a degree in culinary arts
- civil servant : a person who is employed as a government worker in one of several offices that provide services for the community.
- clerk : a person who does general office work.
- computer operator / programmer : a person who writes software programs that are used on computers.
- cook : a person who cooks food in a restaurant.
- construction worker : a person who builds buildings.
- decorator : a person who decorates houses, offices, etc., for special events.
- dentist : a person who treats diseases of the teeth, gums and mouth
- doctor : a person who treats diseases of the body.
- driver bus / taxi / truck : a person who earns money driving.
- garbage man (refuse collector) : the person who picks up and gets rid of your trash.
- economist : a person who studies, works, in the field of economics.
- editor : a person who finds and corrects mistakes in other's writings.
- electrician : a person who works installing and repairing electric equipment.
- farmer : a person who operates and/or works on a farm.
- fisherman : a person who catches fish.
- film director : the person who tells actors what to do on the movie set.
- flight attendant : a person who serves food and takes care of passengers on an airline.
- hairdresser : a person who cuts and styles hair.
- jeweler : a person who makes jewelry.
- journalist : a person who gathers and delivers news. Also known as a reporter.
- judge : a person who hears and determines cause in a court of law.
- lawyer : a person who practices law.
- miner : a person who works digging minerals (coal, gold, etc.) out of the ground.
- musician : a person who plays a musical instrument.
- nurse : a person who takes care of patients.
- optician : a doctor who specializes in the treatment of the eyes.
- painter : a person who paints houses, apartments or other structures.
- pharmacist : a person who prepares and dispenses medical drugs.

Jobs and Their Descriptions

photographer : a person who takes pictures, usually for money.

pilot : a person who flies an airplane.

plumber : a person who installs and repairs water fixtures.

police officer : a person who enforces the law and arrests criminals

porter : a person hired to carry baggage prison guard : a person who keeps order at a jail or prison.

receptionist : a person who greets visitors at an office.

sailor : a person who works on a ship or ocean going vessel.

server : a person who serves food in a restaurant. Has replaced the terms waiter and waitress in most places in the United States.

salesperson : a person who sells merchandise or services; usually paid by commission.

scientist : a person who is specialized in science especially one of the natural sciences.

secretary : a person who handles correspondence and does clerical work.

soldier : a person who serves in the armed forces.

surgeon : a doctor who specializes in treatment of diseases by performing operations on the body.

tailor : a person who makes or mends or alters clothing.

teacher : a person who helps students learn various subjects.

telephone operator : a person who helps people make phone calls.

travel agent : a person who arranges travel plans for clients.

TV cameraman : a person who operates the recording camera for a television program.

veterinarian : An animal doctor. a person who treats animal illnesses usually shortened to vet. .

writer : a person who writes professionally.

warden : the top person in a prison facility.